An Evening With Vinie Burrows

Student Workshops and Master Classes in

- Theatre
- Women's Movement world-wide
- Black History and Literature
- United Nations

When scheduling permits, Ms. Burrows combines theatre performances with workshops or master classes for students. Her unique insights and experience include

- extensive theatre and academic experience
- personal, active participation with women's groups all over the world
- years as an official observer at the United Nations.

"I wish every student on every campus could have the workshop you just gave our community."
California State University, Fresno

"The group seminar on women's issues was a real battery charger."
Mountain View College, Texas

For a general audience or for specific audiences and occasions, three separate shows to select. Three separate themes. Three different theatrical experiences. Proven in over 2000 performances.

Walk Together Children

Vinie Burrows portrays 24 different characters, drawn from the writings of Black poets, authors and composers, to deliver a gripping and moving depiction of the African-American experience from slave days to today's headlines.

"Your show was absolutely magnificent" Lincoln University. "Thank you for coming and sharing your art, insight and passion" University of Pennsylvania. "This was an evening we will long remember," Penn. State University. "Stunning performance," Newark Public Library.

Sister! Sister!

A masterpiece one woman show which documents women's struggles and celebrates women's joys.

Vinie Burrows uses the raw materials of true experiences and the words of gifted writers from Germany, Ireland, Soweto, Italy and the U.S. to create an insightful, powerful theatre experience for and about the sisterhood of women.

"It was a thought-provoking and inspirational show which touched all persons in the audience." Western Washington University. "Ms. Burrows' performance was superb," Rutgers State University. "Thank you so much for your beautiful performance at our benefit" Feminist Press.

Africa Fire!

Vinie Burrows retells traditional African myths, folktales and legends. Interludes of movement and song, enhanced by colorful authentic dress and jewelry create a magical introduction to the oral literature of Africa.

"Dark Fire fit extremely well into our African cultural program...we were so pleased that you could give us such an entertaining and worthwhile understanding of African folklore" Dartmouth College. "It was a program superbly executed with universal appeal to both students and teachers," New Orleans Public Schools.

Each show can be adapted to your specific budget or program needs: from a full scale, multi media presentation to a more concise concert version.
