GENERAL INFORMATION.

GRANVILLE LITERARY AND THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION, is situated about a mile from the village of Granville, in Licking county, Ohio, on a healthy and delightful eminence, and in the midst of an intelligent and moral community. A new college edifice has recently been erected, affording accommodations for students, unsurpassed it is believed, in convenience, pleasantness, and adaptation to the purposes of study, by any similar building in the West.

The Institution embraces four Departments, viz: Preparatory, English, Collegiate, and Theological.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

Course of Studies—First Year.

First Term: Gould's Adams' Latin Grammar,
Jacobs' Latin Reader,
Modern and Ancient Geography.

Second Term: Greek Lessons,
Latin Grammar, and Cæsar,
English Grammar—Kirkham.

Second Year.

First Term: Goodrich's Greek Grammar,
Jacobs' Greek Reader,
Latin Grammar and Virgil,
Intellectual and Written Arithmetic—Colburn and Smith.

Second Term: Latin Grammar and Cicero,
Greek Grammar and Reader, and a portion of the Greek Testament,
History of the United States.

Boys under fifteen years of age, are placed under the guardianship of an Instructor who boards and lodges in the same building, and exercises a constant supervision over their persons, rooms, and general deportment. They recite in connection with classes in the Preparatory or English Departments, or pursue such studies as will qualify them to join one of these Departments.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT.

This Department is designed to afford the means of obtaining a thorough English education, to qualify young men to become skillful instructors of Common Schools, or to enter upon the duties of active life. The course of instruction embraces most of the English studies pursued in the Preparatory and Collegiate Departments, and the Text Books, are generally the same.

COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT.

The course of instruction in College, is designed to be of the most thorough and critical character; combining as great a variety as possible of valuable acquisitions, with such a system of mental discipline as will develope and improve the faculties of the mind in just proportion.

The requisites for admission to the Freshman Class, are, a thorough acquaintance with all the studies pursued in the Preparatory Department, or such acquisitions as the Faculty shall judge equivalent. Candidates for an advanced standing, in addition to the Preparatory studies, are examined in the various branches to which the class that they propose to enter have attended; and if from other Colleges, certificates of regular dismission are required.

Throughout the whole course, there are weekly exercises in composition, and declamation.

THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

The Theological Department is designed to aid pious young men, called to the work of the Christian ministry, in obtaining such an education as will best qualify them to become useful and efficient ministers of the Gospel. No efforts will be wanting to adapt it to the present wants of the West. Those who are prevented by their age, or other circumstances, from pursuing a full and regular Theological course, can, at their pleasure, pursue a shorter course; attending to those studies only, which will have the most direct bearing upon the sacred work which they have in view. Students in this Department will have access to all the advantages afforded by the other Departments.

COMMENCEMENT AND VACATIONS.

The Commencement is held on the second Wednesday in August, and is succeeded by a vacation of six weeks. The first term commences the THIRD THURSDAY in September, and continues twenty-one weeks, and is succeeded by a vacation of four weeks. The second Term commences the THIRD THURSDAY in March, and continues twenty-one weeks, until Commencement. A public examination is held at the close of each term.
