WOMEN'S FILM FESTIVAL

Thursday, November 3, 1988
7:30 p.m.
Slayter Auditorium

"TAKE THE POWER" and "ONE FINE DAY"

Two short films featuring the music of Kay Weaver, one celebrating women's history and the other the accomplishments of ordinary and extraordinary women in the U.S. today.

"MISS... OR MYTH?"

A recent award-winning film about the Miss California pageant and the yearly counter-protest which has grown to eclipse the pageant itself. Intercuts interviews with contestants with interviews with protesters.

"BACK INSIDE HERSELF" and "THE THINNEST LINE"

Debut films by two new Black women filmmakers which have received acclaim. The first deals with self images while the second explores friendships between Black women.

"ANNAPURNA: A WOMAN'S PLACE"

The powerful story of ten women who were the first to climb one of the world's tallest and most dangerous peaks. The all-female camera crew followed the women up to 19,000 feet recording the strain and triumph of the ascent as well as the tragic loss of two team members.
