Young Ladies' Institute.

LOCATION.

The Institute is in the centre of the State, midway between Columbus and Zanesville, in one of the most beautiful and healthy regions of the West. The country is beautifully diversified with hill and valley. The town is in a valley surrounded by hills, presenting one of the loveliest pictures in nature. It is six miles from Newark, and three miles from Union Station, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

BUILDINGS.

The buildings are sufficient to accommodate the family of the President, the Teachers, and about fifty boarding pupils, with all necessary recitation, apparatus, music, and painting rooms. They are surrounded by ample and beautiful grounds, and furnish a delightful home for the inmates of the School.

The buildings will be enlarged during the coming summer, to meet the pressing demands for more room.

APPARATUS.

The School is provided with apparatus for illustrating the most important facts in Natural Science, and new articles will be added to meet the necessities of the classes.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.

The Musical Department is furnished with good Pianos and with two excellent Cabinet Organs.

PAINTING DEPARTMENT.

A large and valuable stock of new patterns has just been received for this department. Unusual facilities are afforded for those who wish to study this branch of the Fine Arts.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two flourishing societies, the Euterpean, and Philomathean, which meet Friday evening of each week, and are doing much to stimulate and cultivate a literary spirit.

They each have a pleasant hall, neatly and tastefully furnished, also good libraries, to which accessions are constantly being made.

ADMISSIONS.

Pupils will be received at any time, and assigned places in classes for which they are prepared. It is very desirable, however, that they should enter at the beginning of the term, and continue to the end. A few days' board and tuition are not to be compared with the derangement of classes, or the unsuccessful pursuit of studies, under the disadvantage of having passed superficially over elementary principles.

DIPLOMAS

Will be awarded to such as have completed the regular course, and also to those who complete the English course, each indicating the course pursued.

Graduates will be required to have a standing of at least eighty per cent., in the studies of the courses.

All classes will be examined in each study before laying it down. Examinations will occur at the close of each term. To all of these the public are cordially invited.

GOVERNMENT.

It is the decided purpose of the Faculty, to make good scholars and practical women. It is intended to make the pupils feel that they have a reputation to preserve, and characters to make; and the government will be in keeping with the dictates of common sense and christian principle.

No pains will be spared to make the pupils happy and comfortable, and such a course will be pursued as will tend to secure cheerful and honest obedience from all.

Teachers and pupils sit at the same table, worship around the same altar, and mingle in friendly intercourse during the hours of recess from school duties.

In all their association with the members of the school, the teachers aim, by direct instruction and personal counsel, to enforce upon the conscience and heart the doctrines and pure precepts of the Scriptures, as the rule of life, and the only safe guide to happiness.

Thorough preparation for every lesson, strict observance of study hours, promptness at recitations and at Chapel, and regular attendance at church on the Sabbath, will be required of all.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1. No pupil will be received, except by special arrangement at the time of entering, for less than a term, or the remainder of the term in which she enters, and no deduction will be made for absence, except from protracted sickness, in which case the loss will be equally shared with the patron.

2. Students from abroad will be expected to board in the Seminary, unless special arrangements are made with the President. Many evils are liable to arise from the choice of surroundings by the pupil, or by parents who are strangers to the influences by which the pupil will be subjected.

The President must have the right to decide so important a matter.

3. Our rooms are arranged in suits; one sitting-room and two bed-chambers to be occupied by four young ladies. Pupils are expected to keep their own rooms in order, and are held responsible for damage to room and furniture.

4. It is very desirable that pupils should be provided with all needful clothing for the term, to prevent interruption of study. It is especially desirable that the dress of the students shall be simple and inexpensive. Simplicity saves time, thought, and money, which to the scholars are precious for higher uses. For this reason, we desire that the outfit be plain, but complete, so as to avoid frequent purchases during term time.

5. All articles of clothing and bedding, must be distinctly marked with the owner's name in full. Each young lady must furnish her own napkins and napkin ring, towels, one pair of sheets, one pair of pillow-cases, and a comfort and blankets, so that two room mates may together furnish all needful bed clothing. Each one must be supplied with thick shoes, over shoes, umbrella, and water-proof cloak. Students furnish their own coal oil lamps.

6. Parents are earnestly requested not to send boxes of cake and sweet-meats to their daughters, as they are generally eaten just before retiring, and invariably cause sickness, and often serious interruption in study. Parents are also requested not to furnish their daughters with too much spending money; a small amount deposited with the President, to be given out at his discretion, will be preferable.

7. Pupils are not allowed to make or receive visits on the Sabbath. The parlor is open to callers on Saturday afternoon, from three to half past four o'clock. Visitors are requested to refrain from calling, except at the designated hours. Persons from a distance, calling upon pupils, will please send their names and requests to the President.
