Call for Papers:

Articulāte is a student-authored and student-edited journal sponsored by the English Department. The editors of Articulāte are looking for submissions that demonstrate original thinking and strong scholarly research in their analysis of literary and/or cultural texts. Essays should not exceed fifteen typed, double-spaced pages. However, longer essays of exceptional quality may still be considered. Please use MLA citations.

Submissions for the 2021-2022 academic year should be emailed to articulate@denison.edu. Please submit the essay and a cover sheet as two separate PDF files. Remove your real name from the essay and put a pseudonym on each page of the essay. In the file name for your submitted essay, put your pseudonym followed by the word "articulate." In the file name for the cover sheet, include your real name and the word "articulate." The cover sheet should include your real name, your pseudonym, the title of your essay, the anticipated year of your graduation, and your email address. Writers must be Denison students at the time of submission, and by submitting their essays, they are agreeing to have them published on the University database of student journals if they are accepted for publication. The journal accepts submissions at any time during the academic year, although we generally issue a call for papers at the beginning of the spring semester and make final decisions in late March or early April.
