EPISTEME

Denison University's Undergraduate Journal of Philosophy announces the scheduled publication of Volume XXX, May 2019

CALL FOR PAPERS

Episteme is a student-run journal that aims to recognize and encourage excellence in undergraduate philosophy by providing examples of some of the best work currently being done in undergraduate philosophy programs. Episteme is published under the auspices of Denison University's Department of Philosophy. Beginning in 2011, the journal is being published at https://digitalcommons.denison.edu/episteme/ too, using a Creative Commons license.

This coming edition of Episteme will be our 30th volume and we are looking for especially exceptional papers to publish as we revamp and spread the journal. As such, the editors would like to encourage all undergraduate students to submit a paper in any area of philosophy. Papers are evaluated according to the following criteria: quality of research, depth of philosophic inquiry, creativity, original insight and clarity. Submissions to be considered for the 30th volume (May 2019) should adhere to the following stipulations:

- 1. Be a maximum of 5,000 words, a minimum of 2,000 words.
- 2. Combine research and original insight.
- 3. Include a cover sheet that provides the following information: author's name, mailing address (current and permanent), email address, telephone number, college or university name, title of submission and word count.
- Include a works cited page in the Chicago Manual of Style format. Please use endnotes rather than footnotes.
- 5. To allow for a blind review process, the author's name should not appear on the submission itself.
- Submissions should be sent electronically, formatted for Microsoft Word.
- 7. More than one article per author will not be accepted for review.
- 8. Please be courteous; submit each paper to only one journal.

Rolling submissions accepted. Submissions to be considered for May 2019 publication must be received by midnight, Sunday, December 21, 2018.

Please send papers and cover sheets to episteme@denison.edu.
