Episteme is published under the auspices of the Denison University Department of Philosophy.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE: Episteme aims to recognize and encourage excellence in undergraduate philosophy by providing both students and faculty with some of the best examples of work currently being done in undergraduate philosophy programs across North America. Episteme is designed to offer undergraduates their first opportunity to publish philosophical work. It is our hope that Episteme will help to stimulate philosophical dialogue and inquiry among students and faculty at colleges and universities.

Episteme is published annually by a staff of undergraduate philosophy majors and minors at Denison University. Please direct all inquiries to "The Editors/Episteme," Dept. of Philosophy, Denison University, Granville, Ohio 43023. E-mail: episteme@denison.edu

Episteme will consider papers written by undergraduate students in any area of philosophy. Submissions should not exceed 4,000 words. Papers are evaluated according to the following criteria: quality of research, depth of philosophical inquiry, creativity, original insight and clarity. Please provide three double spaced copies of each submission and a one page biography including college or university name, major, class year, address and phone number, as well as a 3.5" disk in Microsoft Word format. Deadline for submissions for Volume X is February 1, 1999.
