Seabed

I walk on water, like he did, but he knew that below the stormy surface fish rested on the bottom.
My world is waves and foam and Neptune's mythic storms.
I can only plumb the depths in thoughtful submarines filled full of air.

In the next aeon
I will cease to choke on air and sink below the surface, as deep as the world's foundation, to find that I am a fish.
